Where to Donate, Recycle & Rehome

Your local guide for West Hertfordshire & the Chilterns | Helen Dear | 07488 600127 | helen@sortandorder.co.uk

My car is always full of storage, ready for your day. It arrives packed with boxes, baskets, caddies and dividers to organise your home, so I don't take donations away. Instead, we sort, bag and label everything together, ready for a doorstep collection or an easy drop-off. Book your collection before our session and the bags can leave within days.

1. Free doorstep collections (easiest)

Anglo Doorstep Collections

Free across Hertfordshire. Clothes, shoes, bags, accessories, books, CDs, DVDs, toys, kitchenware. No furniture.

- Book online with your postcode and choose a date
- No need to be home: leave bags by the porch
- You choose which charity it supports
- anglodoorstepcollections.co.uk

iCollectClothes

Free from home or work. Clothes, shoes, accessories, bed linen, towels, curtains, soft & plastic toys, kitchenware. No duvets or pillows.

- Book online; local driver confirms
- Help line: 0344 879 4417
- icollectclothes.co.uk

2. Free groups for bulky items

Great for flat-pack furniture, garden pots, baby kit and craft supplies. Search Facebook for "Free" or "Buy Nothing" plus your town or village, post a photo and arrange a porch pick-up. No contact needed.

- Also: freecycle.org and olioapp.com

3. Furniture & bulky items

British Heart Foundation

Free collection of furniture and electricals in good condition across Herts, Bucks and beyond.

- Book online with your postcode and photos
- bhf.org.uk/furniture-collection

Emmaus Hertfordshire

Furniture, bikes, working electricals, homeware. Free collection (subject to condition).

- Crosby Close, Hill End Lane, St Albans AL4 0AT | Mon-Sat 9-5
- 01727 817297 | emmaus.org.uk/hertfordshire

4. Local hospice charity shops

Hospice of St Francis

Shops across West Herts, plus Returned to Glory for quality furniture (Northbridge Road, Berkhamsted HP4 1EH).

Rennie Grove Peace Hospice Care

Shops across Herts and Bucks, including Amersham, Chesham, Berkhamsted, Tring, Harpenden and St Albans. Clothes, books, china, small electricals.

- renniegrovepeace.org - find your nearest shop

5. Recycling centres

Hertfordshire

Centres include Hemel Hempstead, Berkhamsted, St Albans, Harpenden, Watford and Hoddesdon. Free ePass booking and proof of address needed.

- hertfordshire.gov.uk - find a centre

Buckinghamshire

Centres include Chesham, Beaconsfield, High Wycombe and Aston Clinton. Bucks residents; some vans and trailers need a permit.

- buckinghamshire.gov.uk - find a centre

Most centres have a reuse shop for items too good to bin.

Before our session

- Book your doorstep collection for a day or two after
- Have a few strong bags or boxes ready
- Note anything bulky to offer to a free group
